GRATIFYING INFORMATION

Situation in the Philippines Regarded as Encouraging.

Gen. Otis Reports That Natives on Mindanao Want to Surrender to the Americans.

War Department officials are today very much encouraged regarding the situation in the Philippines, as conveyed by the official and press dispatches. The dispatch relative to the intended surrender of the eastern portion of Mindanao indicates, it is said, the disposition of the people of the southern islands to accept American sovereignty. These people have heretofore made offers of surrender, but have coupled it with a provision that the United States should relinquish its rights if Aguinaldo should be successful in Luzon.

One official of the department said that during the past month more rapid strides had been made in the Philippines than during any other portion of the American occupation.

Gen. Otis' message is as follows: "MANILA, September 30, 1899. "Adjutant General, Washington: "Communication dated 12th instant, from Gen. Garcia, commanding all insurgent troops in eastern Mindanao, expresses desire to turn country over to United States authorities and surrender all insurgent arms. OTIS."

WORDS OF COMMENDATION

Judge Barnard's Appointment Meets With General Approval.

Selection Regarded as a Good One From Every Point of View—Personal Friends Delighted.

The appointment of Mr. Job Barnard as a member of the Supreme Court of the District, to succeed Judge Walter S. Cox, retired, is generally commended. His personal friends, of whom there are many, are delighted, and members of the bar and others interested, who were seen today, regard the selection as a good one from every point of view.

The expressions of those interviewed in the brief time given for a canvass are as follows:

"President McKinley has made a wise selection in naming Job Barnard to be associate justice of the District Supreme Court, vice Judge Walter S. Cox," said Mr. Frank D. Orme. "I have known Mr. Barnard for many years, and my esteem for the man has increased every year. He is strictly conscientious, courteous, honest, industrious and patient. A judge of men and of law, he is the right man for the place, and a worthy successor to Judge Cox. The bar and the people have good reason to thank the President for honoring such a man."

Mr. B. H. Warner said: "First class. Mr. Barnard is a level-headed man, upright and very popular. There is nothing narrow about him. He takes a broad view of the law, and I think he will be acceptable to the bar and the public."

Mr. S. Worthington: "I am very glad to hear of Mr. Barnard's appointment. He is an excellent man and will please every one at the bar. I think it is about as good an appointment as could have been made. He is thoroughly familiar with the practice of law in the District and is in every way qualified for the position to which he has been appointed."

The Bar Approves.

Mr. Barnard has been the recipient today of many hearty congratulations from his associates of the bar. The prominent attorneys calling at the city hall this morning expressed enthusiastic approval of the President's choice.

Mr. Henry E. Davis, United States district attorney, who has been mentioned as a candidate for the judgeship, said: "Mr. Barnard is an excellent man, and one of the best lawyers in the District of Columbia. A man of splendid judgment and thorough knowledge of the law, he will make a judge of the highest type."

Mr. R. Ross Perry declared that Mr. Barnard is the man for the place, and Mr. A. Birney, former associate justice, said the President's selection is bound to be a popular one, as Mr. Barnard is a learned man, who has the confidence, respect and esteem of the entire bar.

Mr. Samuel Maddox, president of the Bar Association, said he would have to think some time to compare comment hefting Mr. Barnard's high ability and worthiness.

At District Building.

District Commissioner John W. Ross: "I am delighted to hear of Mr. Barnard's appointment, for I consider it a most excellent one. From my acquaintance with him, I formed when I was practicing law here, and from my general knowledge of him I regard him as well qualified for the position. I am sure he will make an able and honest judge, an honor to the bench."

Dr. Wm. Tindall, secretary to the board of District Commissioners: "Judge Barnard is a man of even temper, one of general accomplishments and a lawyer who has always been devoted to his profession. He is a man, too, of modern ideas, and one has any occasion to fear that he will not fill his place on the bench to the satisfaction of both the citizen and the public."

Maj. Richard Sylvester, chief of police: "I have known Judge Barnard for a number of years, and have always found him to be a dignified, able man, accomplished and conscientious."

NEW MILLINERY DISPLAY.

The Handsome and Extensive Stock at Kann's Busy Corner.

The new millinery show rooms at Kann's Busy Corner were opened today and inspected by a throng of ladies all day, who frequently expressed their delight over the beautiful goods on display and the show room itself. Kann's success with the millinery department last year, which was phenomenal, suggested the desirability of establishing a millinery department which would include the finest creations in that line to be obtained in the world. It was thought that a stock of millinery which would include the latest in style, the best in material, all at reasonable prices, would be appreciated by Washington ladies.

So Madame Kraft, who has had life-long experience in that line, and who has been to Europe many times upon similar errands, was sent abroad by Kann's to visit the millinery emporiums of England and the continent to buy a stock. She spent seven weeks in Paris and London, during her visit late so that she would obtain the very latest styles. The stock which she purchased arrived on time and was opened.

In the meantime, Kann proceeded to prepare suitable show rooms for this magnificent stock of goods. An apartment of ten feet by 100 in size was made ready. It was handsomely papered with blue carriage paper and well lighted. At one end the past show room was built, and it is claimed that there is not a handsomer show room south of New York. It is certainly a very beautiful feature of an already famous mercantile establishment. One enters the show room from the main store and finds a parquette floor, upon which stand a number of solid mahogany cases with plate-glass fronts. They are lighted by electric lights in circular opal globes, which send a soft radiance over the cases, rich of effect, as the case may be, of the beautiful hats on display. Some of the hats are shown on wax figures, and as one looks at the effect of the piece of millinery on the human head, and others are merely set upon frames. The hats are arranged in each case with reference to their color scheme. In one case are all the grays, in another the blues, and so on around the room, the whole harmonizing perfectly.

In this collection of hats are the newest London and Paris models. They are not mere copies of the fashionable foreign shapes, but are the hats themselves, with the foreign makers' names in the lining. One of the most striking is a black hat, with all the feathers on the front of the hat. This one costs $45, but that is the highest-priced hat in the lot. They range downward quite within reach of the ordinary pocket book. The fur hats, of which there are many beautiful specimens, are trimmed in light, gauzy fabrics. An extra number of clerks have been put on duty in the show room to exhibit the hats and they are glad to point out the newest foreign models.

REPUBLICANISM IN SPAIN.

Largely Attended Meeting Held in Madrid Last Night.

MADRID, September 30.—A meeting of republicans was held here last evening which was attended by 6,000 persons. Among those present were a number of leading French, Italian and Portuguese republicans. Several violent speeches were made, in the course of which the monarchy was attacked.

At the Burgos Catholic congress a committee was appointed to establish a republican union.

A resolution was passed demanding that steps be taken to secure the liberation of the Spanish prisoners held by the insurgents in the Philippines.

Salt for Wages.

Robert H. Mothershead, James Jett and Lee Peed today instituted legal proceedings against the schooner Alice J. Carls, now lying at Thirteenth wharf, James Creek canal. The men claim certain wages are due them.

TO CLEAN CARPETS.

If you have a carpet that looks dingy and you wish to restore it to its original freshness, make a stiff lather of Ivory Soap and warm water and scrub it, width by width, with the lather. Wipe with a clean damp sponge. Do not apply more water than necessary.

The vegetable oils of which Ivory Soap is made, and its purity, fit it for many special uses for which other soaps are unsafe and unsatisfactory.

Baltimore Jeweler Murdered.
 William P. Collins, thirty years old, a jeweler, at 2404 Pennsylvania avenue, in Baltimore, was found dead in his sleeping room at the rear of his store yesterday with his skull crushed and every evidence that he had been murdered. By his side lay a bloody iron coupling pin, with which the crime had evidently been committed. The stock of jewelry, which is small, was apparently intact, but there was some appearance that the cash drawer of the safe had been emptied by the murderer. Collins, who was unmarried and lived alone in the rear of his store, had not been seen since Wednesday night.
